Definitions

- Disability: in relation to a person, means:
 - a) total or partial loss of the person's bodily or mental functions
 - b) total or partial loss of a part of the body
 - c) the presence in the body of organisms causing disease or illness
 - d) the presence in the body of organisms capable of causing disease or illness
 - e) the malfunction, malformation or disfigurement of a part of the person's body
 - f) a disorder or malfunction that results in the person learning differently from a person without the disorder or malfunction
 - g) a disorder, illness or disease that affects a person's thought processes, perception of reality, emotions or judgment or that results in disturbed behaviour and includes a disability that:
 - i. presently exists
 - ii. previously existed but no longer exists
 - iii. may exist in the future (including because of a genetic predisposition to that disability)
 - iv. is imputed to a person.

To avoid doubt, a disability that is otherwise covered by this definition includes behaviour that is a symptom or manifestation of the disability.

- Associate, in relation to a person: includes:
 - a) a spouse of the person
 - b) another person who is living with the person on a genuine domestic basis
 - c) a relative of the person
 - d) a carer of the person
 - e) another person who is in a business, sporting or recreational relationship with the person.
- Direct disability discrimination: a person (the discriminator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of a disability of the aggrieved person if, because of the disability, the discriminator treats, or proposes to treat, the aggrieved person less favourably than the discriminator would treat a person without the disability in circumstances that are not materially different.

A person (the discriminator) also discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of a disability of the aggrieved person if:

- a) the discriminator does not make, or proposes not to make, reasonable adjustments for the person
- b) the failure to make the reasonable adjustments has, or would have, the effect that the aggrieved person is, because of the disability, treated less favourably than a person without the disability would be treated in circumstances that are not materially different.

For the purposes of this section, circumstances are not materially different because of the fact that, because of the disability, the aggrieved person requires adjustments.

- Indirect disability discrimination: a person (the discriminator) discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of a disability of the aggrieved person if:
 - a) the discriminator requires, or proposes to require, the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition
 - b) because of the disability, the aggrieved person does not or would not comply, or is not able or would not be able to comply, with the requirement or condition
 - c) the requirement or condition has, or is likely to have, the effect of disadvantaging persons with the disability.

A person (the discriminator) also discriminates against another person (the aggrieved person) on the ground of a disability of the aggrieved person if:

- a) the discriminator requires, or proposes to require, the aggrieved person to comply with a requirement or condition
- b) because of the disability, the aggrieved person would comply, or would be able to comply, with the requirement or condition only if the discriminator made reasonable adjustments for the person, but the discriminator does not do so or proposes not to do so
- c) the failure to make reasonable adjustments has, or is likely to have, the effect of disadvantaging persons with the disability.
